

Mentor Position Description

Standard of Christian Commitment: The mission and goals of One by One Ministries mandate that all volunteers demonstrate a love and commitment to the Lord Jesus Christ. Every participating One by One volunteer team member shall be an active and faithful member of a local church of believers in Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior. It is expected that conduct becoming a follower of Jesus Christ will be portrayed in the community at large.

Basic Function: Mentoring new and expectant mothers by: making monthly, or more often, mentoring visits; using One by One curriculum and resources designed to encourage and educate parents about the needs of their babies; and sharing the good news of Jesus Christ.

Specific Duties:

I. Training:

- Complete One by One Ministries Mentor training and EvanTell on-line training.
- Attend the monthly Mentor meetings at the sponsoring church.
- Participate in the Annual One by One Conference and other in-service trainings.

II. Mentoring:

- Be consistently mindful of the mission and goals of One by One Ministries and work for their realization in the life of the participant mother and family.
- Using the outlined visit plan and materials in the One by One Mentor's Manual, pray, plan and prepare for monthly home visits with Participant Mom and her family.
 - Prenatal: make frequent contacts by phone, text and monthly in-person visits.
 - At Birth: contact Participant Mom when baby is born and visit in hospital. An extra home visit may be appropriate this month to assist the new mother.
 - Birth to 12 Month Visits: make monthly home visits and contact weekly by phone or text; follow up in scheduling future appointments with Participant Mom.
- Notify your Prayer Partner of upcoming visits so that she knows when to use her Prayer Guide; pray with your Prayer Partner in person or by phone before, and after each visit with the participant.
- Complete evaluation forms after each visit to provide feedback on: baby's health and development; the mother's interest in parenting and spiritual progress.
- Be prepared at every visit to: share the Gospel; to disciple a Mom who is already a Christian; to make yourself available for prayer requests/needs of the family.
- Keep strict confidentiality about all families enrolled in One by One Ministries.
